“ My first memory of meeting Ann was on the Racquetball court. That was the year 1986. Patti brought her sister Ann to join our league. What a firecracker she was, on and off the court. Even while playing hard her hair and makeup was always perfect. But all you needed was to see that smile and you would want to be her friend. After the games we would talk about our children, families and our daily life. As the years went by she was still a firecracker, and a classy spirited strong beautiful business woman..... And of course the youngest looking Grandmother that I have ever seen. I am grateful to have known Ann and her sisters , in our younger years to now. Anthony, Michelle, John, Michael and my Grandchildren are so sorry for your loss. Our Angel is resting now.

“ Ann was an amazing strong woman. Being able to share Anthony with you and having you accept me as his “other” mom was truly a great honor. It was also an honor to be asked to officiate you and Gabe’s wedding. You will be sorely missed.

“ ANN ..Was an amazing woman.. m when she walked into the room..it was always with class..style...and command performance....Professional adept to succeed in anything...and always lifting others...encouraging thier best...loved to live life ...celebrating with her family and friends...foe even the smallest accomplishment...accomplishment... supporting thier cause.. I admired her so much..... I will truly miss her fabulous style...exquisite taste... when God made Ann...He cast the mold away...the world was a better place because she was in it...and it will never ...be the same. In Honour of Ann Licko....I bow my head...fly free beautiful soul.....we will miss your complete and beautiful being...r.i.p...everlasting.... gone too soon...never to be forgotton....Love. Michele...❤️🙏❤️🕊️
