“ The DeAngelo family loves you with all our hearts! Thank you for teaching Hannah how to lead worship and help mold her into the Apostolic woman she is today. It has been such a blessing to be a part of your life. Our girls and boys enjoyed so much together. Enjoy your time with Jesus!❤️ We will miss you but know you are in a better place.

“ We are sad to see you go but know you are in a far better place now. We will miss your anointed singing and playing. I can still hear you singing “There’s a promise coming down that dusty road”. You were the greatest singer of that song. Praying for your loved ones left behind.

“ I will never forget the good times we had together- going to see the Christmas lights each year, that one poor girl at McDonald’s who had a hangover and messed up our order THREE TIMES!, coming to stay with me when I was close to my due date with Frankie and Francis was working overnights so I wouldn’t be alone. Getting together at your house, the way you treated my kids just like they were your own grandkids. They love you so much and Victoria still thanks God for you and your family every night during her bedtime prayers. Frankie keeps asking me when we can go to Mimi’s house again! You truly made our family feel like we were a part of yours and we will always remember your friendship and incredible kindness to us. Rest well sweet friend until we meet again. Much love from Francis, Shelley, Frankie and Victoria.

“ Thank you Sis Maynard for being a Godly example to me over the years. I will always cherish the time I got teaching alongside with you. I will always remember the love you showed me and my family. You were never afraid to correct me and direct in love. I will miss hearing your voice and your singing. But I know I'll see you one day again. You served the Lord with all your heart. You had such an excitement talking about the coming of the Lord and you knew we were living in the last day's. When we all get to heaven...❤️❤️❤️ Alberta James

“ There is so many memories that come to mind when I think about this beautiful soul!! As I am type this I'm crying to know someone like her is gone but I know she is singing with Jesus now. She was such a teacher and loving, and caring person. My twin and I remember the times we were babysat by her and the fun we had. She is the reason I started to sing. I remember when we were doing a play when I was about 17 years old, I was so nervous to do the solo part, but she has so much faith me, that I could do it. She practiced with me for hours until I felt good. That's the kind of person she is...she gives and gives until you were ready to be on your own. I will miss she smile and laugh but one day I will hear that beautiful voice singing again. Love you dearly and the family. I am praying for you all.

“ Whether it was random crazy selfies, geo catching, cooking, campfires, playing board games around the table, Black Friday shopping.... You did it all. You enjoyed doing anything and everything with your grandkids, and was always ready for the next adventure. I'm glad to have spent the time I had with you. I loved our boy talks and how we would love to bother Kassandra about her boy problems. I truly miss your beautiful smile and the way it seemed to light up a room. Even though you were our grandma, you related to us like if we were the same age. You loved listening to our Miami stories, and oh how they made you laugh. I know your resting peacefully now and looking down on us. You will be forever missed.

“ Mom, you are beautiful, funny, a jokester, and you had such a heart for teaching. You thought the world of you family. It was so important to you to create a memory with us all. You loved to share Christmas traditions and baking! I love you!

“ Dee was an incredible multi-faceted lady; she played piano, sang acted and excelled at games. She could make anything with a sewing machine, she could whip up a tasty family meal out of nothing or a whole Holiday dinner for a crowd. She was very gifted with her capacity for giving love. Her family was everything to her, and she was fiercely faithful to her God and to her church. She loved shopping cooking, entertaining and gift giving at Christmas and wearing her Mickey's ears when the family went to Disney World. We will all miss her sweet spirit in our lives.

“ Ever since I met her, she has treated me like family. Even though we aren't blood related, I considered her my grandma. I loved how she would always play board games with us as kids every time we asked, she would let me bake with her and would listen to all of my drama. She was such a nice person and I know that she's still watching over us even now.

“ This photo was taken on a Thanksgiving day. It is a beautiful memory in where we enjoyed spending time together. Deidra had a great time. We were thankful to God on that day and today we are thankful again that we were able to spend together this lovely time. Deidra was a very special person to us. Her smile, love, and kind heart will never be forgotten. Deidra will always live in our hearts and bring a smile to us when we think of her. Today, we can not be sad because we know that right now she is walking next to The Lord.

“ My favorite memory is when she came down to watch the boys for Crystal while her and Kenny were out of town. They asked if I could come over a few days to help her out, and we had the best time! Baked cookies for us all to eat and had fun with a movie night with the boys! We talked and told stories all day. This is when I felt we became so much closer! I was always so glad to see when she was visiting! I always admired the love she showed toward her family and grandkids. She was so selfless and caring!! I will miss her so much!

“ One of the things I loved most about Sister Maynard, is her dedication to the Sunday school department. Although she taught the 8-9 year olds, she made sure she greeted every one of those kids. Every time one of us who taught a class walked in the building, she always had a smile on her face, no matter what was going on, it didn't even matter if one of the kids was acting up, she never lost her smile. Sister Maynard will never be forgotten.
