

Eileen Margaret Smith

January 23, 1955 - November 21, 2020

Eileen Margaret Smith, 65, of Delray Beach Florida

Passed: November 21, 2020

Survived by: Husband of 45 years Charles Smith

Children: Regina (Ryan), David (Tiina), Michele (Ben)

Grandchildren: Carter, Lily, Brycen, Dylan, Chloe, Maddux and Sienna

Eileen was always the life of the party. She loved dancing the night away, especially at weddings surrounded by her large family. Her passions included cooking, home decorating, archery, cruises, shopping, spoiling her grandchildren and playing the stock market. She was well known for her many signature dishes: meatballs, mashed potatoes, sausage and peppers and more, all of which were usually prepared with her favorite wooden spoon.

Eileen was a wonderful wife, mother, and friend. She was easy to talk to, a great listener and treated everyone like family. She will be dearly missed and in our hearts forever.

“ It's taken some time for me to post on here but today felt like a good day for some reason. Eileen was the mother-in-law of all mother-in-laws. I would joke that if I could have picked the perfect in-laws from a magazine, I still wouldn't have picked ones as good as the ones I got. Eileen was one in a million. She was funny & kind but had that “don't mess with me” toughness that was cool beyond words. She was an amazing mom who I was blessed enough to get to call her so by marrying her son (aka the love of my life). She was the best Grammy, who did everything for her grandkids and their happiness. She was an example (along with Charlie) of what love & marriage are all about. She loved life & lived it without abandon but always with her lipstick on. Eileen, I miss you beyond words. There are so many moments I miss not getting to share with you. The boys talk about you and ask if you are now their Angel who watches over them like their other grandmother (my mom) in heaven. There is so much more I could say but I'll end this by saying I love you, I miss you & I'll see you again. Please say hi to my mom.

“ I was so sad to hear of Eileen's passing. We used to have fabulous conversations in the halls and cafe of NCCI. We bonded over the construction of our homes. She was always cheery and never had a cross word to say about anything or anyone. Please accept my condolences.

“ So sorry for your loss David, Tiina and family. Eileen was such a great lady, very funny and, yes, lots of fun. Her face would light up when she talked about her children and grandchildren. She'll be dearly missed!

“ I’m an so sorry for your loss Smith family. Regina, you mom sounds a lot like you! I’m sure she’s proud of the woman, mother and friend you have become. Regina has been kind, caring and fun friend since I met her 5 years ago. She always there for her friends and always a person I can turn to for support or a good laugh. We are thinking and praying for you all.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family during these difficult times and I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Eileen for over 11 years. She would always greet me with a smile. Eileen was always positive and caring. She would always ask how things were going in my life and always had a funny story. She loved her family and enjoyed life. I can't believe she is gone and she will be missed.

“ I worked with Eileen, Dave and Tiina. If you ever stopped to talk with Eileen, that almost certainly meant you were going to have a good laugh. My impression of her is that she knew how to squeeze the last drop of joy and fun out of life, even when faced with tough times.

Raising my glass to a courageous; tough, but soft and funny woman.

My heartfelt condolences to Dave, Tiina, especially Charlie who lost his life-long mate and the whole Smith family.

“ Though I didn’t see Aunt Eileen often it was always a treat when Aunt Eileen and Uncle Charlie were in town. I’ll miss those times seeing her at weddings. Aunt Eileen was always so pleasant to be around and genuinely interested in everyone’s lives. Wishing Uncle Charlie, Regina, David, Michelle and all her grandkids strength as they learn to live in a world without her physical presence. Love you all!

“ I met Michele in Xray school back in 2005. We didn't become best friends at first.. it took a day or two. Eileen and Charlie welcomed me into the family right away, always treating me like one of their own. Eileen always reminded me of my own family.. always making sure I was cared for and fed on my many sleepovers at their house. She was my other mother.. and I was her “other daughter”. I was honored to have Eileen and Charlie at my wedding (Although I think she only came for Dustin) bc they always felt like an extension of my own family. Eileen made me laugh and smile anytime I was around her. She will surely be missed everyday.

“ Regina, Your Mom was a wonderful Mother, Grandmother and wife. She was also an amazing cook. At gatherings, I remember she would always bring the best Italian dishes. She was warm and kind and did an amazing job raising you! Sending love to Regina and the entire family. Carol Hickman

“ These pictures remind us all of how important family was for Eileen. Nothing made her happier than being with her three terrific children and her grandkids.

Eileen was a wonderfully kind Mother in Law to me personally. Always caring for how I was doing. Always making sure I was well fed with her amazing sausage and meatballs. Her amazing homemade pasta sauce. We both shared a love of Tito's and Cranberry :)

She raised an amazing woman in Regina, who I love deeply and is a wonderful mother herself, following in Eileens footsteps. I'm incredibly lucky to be an extended part of the Smith family that Eileen and Charlie created together.

“ Regina,
Sounds like you embody many of your mom’s awesome qualities. She sounds like an amazing woman and I am sure she loved seeing you be a wonderful wife, mom, entrepreneur and friend. I have loved hearing stories about your Mom and can’t wait to have you make her meatballs for me :). You and your entire family are in our thoughts and virtual hugs to all!

“ Aunt Eileen to me was the “cool aunt”. She was interested in what was going on in my life from the time I was very young until present day. I was her babysitter for many years and looked forward to seeing her and Uncle Charlie go off to bowling on Thursdays. At weddings and parties, Aunt Eileen would always pull up a chair and hang with her nieces and nephews. She was fun. She always made us laugh, and truly cared about all of us. The last time I saw her she told me that I raised fine men, which I really appreciated. She also told me that I haven’t aged since I was her babysitter, which was extremely kind. She will be forever missed. All my love to Uncle Charlie, Regina, David, Michelle, and their families.

“ I always had a sense of feeling included when aunt Eileen was around. A feeling like she really wanted to know what was going on in my life. Especially when I was a child/teenager, it definitely made me feel special. She would say, “So tell me, Tricia, are you dating anyone? Talk to me. Tell me what’s new.” That made me feel special and gave me a sense that I mattered. I felt aunt Eileen was my cheerleader. I remember when I was about 19yrs old I was sharing with her that I wanted to not have a curfew anymore and was upset that my parents wouldn’t let me. Well I was excited to realize after talking to aunt Eileen that she agreed with ME! Yey! She leaned in and whispered, “I will have a talk with your mom. I will see what I can do.” Well aunt Eileen worked her magic. Forever grateful for my “no curfew” request granted and now to me, aunt Eileen was crowned the “cool aunt.”

I also remember when I married my sister, she came up to me after the ceremony and told me how good I did and that she sees me being a motivational speaker. Wow such an awesome compliment. She seemed to always had a way of lifting me up. Aunt Eileen, I will miss our conversations and the way you made me feel. Forever in my heart. Love you and miss you!

“ I had the great pleasure of working with Eileen at NCCI for 19 years. I miss hearing her stories of family, friends, and travel. She always made me laugh. She adored her grandchildren and had a "wall of fame" devoted to them in her cubicle. I looked forward to her sausage and peppers when we had potluck lunches years ago. My condolences to her family and friends. Dan Pennel

“ I couldn't have dreamt up a better Mother in Law. Eileen was always fun to be around. She always had a new story to tell or juicy piece of gossip to share. I always looked forward to visiting. I could count on lots of delicious food, dessert (including Napoleon ice cream), laughs, the ID Network being on and if I made a wisecrack; "I'll kill ya Ben" in a very thick New York accent.

To say you'll be missed is as gigantic of an understatement as they come. I still can't believe you are gone. I love you Eileen and I hope you are one of the first to greet me in Heaven.

“ Words cannot express how sorry I am. No words will take away your pain. Aunt Eileen was always fun to be around and I will always keep her close to my heart. My heart breaks for you all. Uncle Charlie know that I am thinking of you. Many of the best years of my life were spent with you and Aunt Eileen “I Swear” I’m praying for you all. Love you !

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Eileen 23 years ago during our orientation at our company. We started on the same day. We eventually worked in the same department for most of those years. Eileen could always make you laugh. She had quick wit and strength. We shared many lunch hours together and many hilarious stories about work and our families. The most memorable for me is how much pride and love she had for all of you, her family. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Rest in peace Eileen.

“ It is with a sad heart that I give my deepest sympathy to Charlie, Regina, David, Michele and their families. It was my pleasure to have worked with Eileen for over 20 years. Eileen was such a fun person who was valued as a member of our work team. Eileen was always ready to share a smile and a give a good laugh during the day. What I will remember most about Eileen is her profound love for her family. She especially loved talking about her grandchildren and sharing their latest pictures and videos. Eileen also had a genuine interest in the lives of others and always made sure to inquire about what was going on with my family. I will miss her many stories, laughter and caring heart. -- Karen Jones
