“ My deepest sympathy to the Koehler family, to my Aunt Norma, Janet's sisters and my cousins, Linda and Carol and to their families as well as Janet's sweetness, humor and spirit touched a wide, wide circle. My childhood memories of Janet never fail to make me smile. It is my loss that we lost touch as adults. It is also my lesson that the belief that's there is always going to be time "later" is pretty silly but I know Janet would understand and that we would always pick up right where we left off without missing a beat although now it'll have to be somewhere else in the universe. My husband Chuck and I have made a donation to St. Jude's Children's Cancer Research Hospital in Janet's name. Janet, you will be missed by all who knew you.

With Love,

“ My heart is breaking for Janet’s mom, Norma; sisters Carol & Linda and the Penberthy girls; husband Werner; wonderful kids; adorable grandchildren; and loyal friends. Janet is my cousin and also my soul-sister whom I adored. We had so much fun as kids in New Brighton and then as teens in WPB. Seeing her always brightened my spirit. Janet was so smart and funny, creative and generous. Together, we were our best (and most mischievous) selves! And I thank Aunt Norma for housing me for days and weeks during those Florida summers.

While we lost touch after my summer visits to Florida stopped when I got out of school, lived “up north,” and then we both got busy raising families, it’s interesting to see that we ended up having such similar interests as adults – nature and conservation, kids and books. I feel like she could have stood in for me any day at my job at National Geographic! She was also passionate about life’s big issues and the state of the country as far as politics, corporate greed, climate change, and the rest of it. She had a high sense of morality and responsibility. And I only wish that Janet -- and all the good people like her -- had more power to change the world, because it would be a much more beautiful place.

I will be forever saddened, but forever grateful for having known and loved her.
I have so many sweet memories to cherish.
With deepest sympathy to her family,
Holly Saunders, Bethesda, MD

“ I'VE CHANGED MY ADDRESS
I've changed my address to Heaven
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying,
Because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here,
For the Lord Himself I see.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I bid this world goodbye.
I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.
I have no burdens or heartaches
And from tears I am now free.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore.
For the Lord built a mansion
And my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
For where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.

Enjoy your new home, Janet.
