

Jesus "Chuchi" Alfonso Menendez

September 19, 1992 - September 1, 2020

Jesus "Chuchi" Menendez went to be with his mother in Heaven on September 1, 2020. Chuchi was born on September 19, 1992 in West Palm Beach, Florida. He grew up in Royal Palm Beach and spent his youth volunteering for children's camps throughout the county. Chuchi had a love for horses and spending time with his family and friends. One of his favorite things to do was play with his nieces and nephews. He lived a beautiful life and brought joy to everyone he met. He will always be remembered for his kind soul, his love for fashion and Lady Gaga. He is survived by his father, 3 brothers, 2 sisters and countless friends and family.

"There are some who bring a light so great to the world that even after they have gone the light remains"

“ To the Menendez family, I am so sad that the world lost such and kind and loving friend and am really at a loss for words. Our family has lived just around the corner from you for years and this saddens my family deeply . Chuchi was a good friend to my brother and I and we send our deepest love and prayers and support to all of you. If you need anything im just across the canal.
