“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. Continue to rely on God and know that he hears your prayers, because he cares for you. Truly sorry for your loss.

“ The first time I met Joan Hudak was at Yadviga (Yaja) Chitko's Divine Mercy Cenacle in April 1997. I had exchanged pleasantries with Joan for maybe 30 seconds or so when she looked at me straight in the eye and said "Can you start having Cenacles in your home? They really need them." Even though I was thinking to myself "In my tiny apartment? Who would come?" Joan and some of her friends came to my first Cenacle in my apartment two months later. You see, that's the way it was with Joan. Just as "When E.F. Hutton talks, people listen" Joan was a persuasive leader and when she spoke people did listen, .Mine was one of the many, many Cenacles--perhaps forty, holy and powerful Cenacles -- that Joan and a friend started and inspired in Bergen County, New Jersey, and that continued for several years.

I don't know of anyone who got more joy out of saying the Holy Rosary than Joan. In talking about it, her voice would get very excited and almost childlike as she said "I just love saying the Rosary!" And that she did over and over every day for her own special intentions, her wonderful family, and all of ours. Joan was also a definitive authority for many of us through the years regarding any Catholic or spiritual issues. She would also say that there was nothing more powerful you could do for a special intention than to have a Mass said. I often took her advice and, as she promised, all would frequently go perfectly.

Joan was first and foremost a wonderful friend and confidante, and my spiritual mentor. I will always remember her voice bursting with enthusiasm, her great sense of humor and hearty laugh, and her loving support. I will miss you greatly, Dear Friend. Thank you for all of your countless prayers for me and my family and for setting me on the right path. May the holy angels now guide you to Jesus and Our Blessed Mother, whom you loved so much and for whom you worked so tirelessly, lovingly, and well.
