

Karen Evelyn Robinson

November 28, 1956 - April 25, 2017

Karen Evelyn Robinson, 60, of West Palm Beach, passed away on Tuesday April 25th with her beloved husband and daughter by her side. She will live on in our hearts and memories as a doting wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister and aunt. Karen's focus on life was her family and making memories. Her utmost joy was seeing those close to her succeed and follow their true passion.

Life to her was not about materialistic things, but the simple joys in life; traveling, time with family, and conversation. Time at the beach was her serenity and one of her favorite pastimes. It was the best remedy for anything in life. She lived a life full of positivity and inspirational affirmations which helped carry her through her six year battle with ovarian cancer. There wasn't a moment that she gave in. She focused on lifting those around her up and watching her grandkids grow. She took her final breath as a true warrior one day after her 40th Wedding Anniversary, a true testament to her focus on protecting her family.

Karen's true passion in life aside from her family was art. She was a true creative her entire life. Working in many mediums; Paintings, Fabrics, Crochet, Sewing, Interior & Landscape design, Sculpture, Bead making, Mixed media, the list truly goes on. Her passion for art was passed down to her children and grandchildren. This is how she connected with those around her and brought life to experiences she had. She was a prolific artist and her passion for the unique and crazy stories will be remembered and cherished forever through her art which was collected all over the globe.

She is survived by her husband Terry Robinson; son Buckley (Sheena) Robinson; daughter Brandy Robinson; son Bradley (Aurora) Robinson; granddaughters Trinity Robinson and Kaylee Robinson; grandson Sean Robinson; mother Joyce Cubine; sisters Kimberly Payton and Kathy Holbrook; brother Kevin Cubine.

“ Karen's grandfather lived next door to us, Mr Dunaway. So we saw Karen and Kim and Joyce a lot in our younger days. I was always jealous of Karen because she was so pretty and sweet! So sorry Kim and Joyce and all the family!

“ My first Memory of Karen (and her siblings and parents) go back to about 1961 when Mom and Dad loaded us up in his big Buick station wagon and we went visiting her family . Her mother Joyce was mom's youngest sister and Florida in the winter time was an experience we all never forgot as was the trip. Karen, and the kids were a lot younger then me and were so full of laughter and life. It was a unique experience and will always color my memory of her and her siblings. Later when they all came to Kentucky and stayed with us at the farm on old Millstone Creek was a hoot. I still remember them coming back up from the creek and the old swimming hole and excitedly exclaiming, " Mom!, They have their own beach!" My memories of Karen will always be of a young girl full of life and laughter..... In the end that is a great thing to be able to say. Her picture is a good reflection of her... smiling and laughing in the sunshine. God's Love and Blessing's on you all. Joe and Rosemary and the girls.

“ I did not get to spend much time with my cousin Karen, but the little bit of time I did I never forgot. I was around 9 yrs old and I am now 40, so it of course has been a wee bit. I took my first really big trip with my mamaw, ClaraLee which was Karen's aunt. We went to Florida for my uncles wedding and the first place we stayed was with Karen and her family. At that time they had an outside potty and I was scared to death to go out after dark from fear of getting ate by an alligator, "Yikes". LOL it was an experience for sure.

“ Our sincere condolences to Karen's family and friends.

Karen was such a beautiful sweet lady who enjoyed life and loved her family. I enjoyed talking with her, as she was knowledgeable about so many things, and could do just about anything. I had not seen Karen since we left WPB although I am sure she was still working in her yard and making a home for her family, whom meant everything to her.

Our hearts go out to all of you; especially Terry whom she loved so. Cherish your memories of this special lady.

With Regards,
