“ I had the privilege of meeting this angel through my best friend and brother Patrick. What stood out for me was her unwavering support, love and care for her kids and even strangers. Mummy invited me to spend weekends with her and the family in Spanish Town. I would pack up my bags and took the journey from Portland to visit my extended family. She said, “Preston this house is just as much yours as it is Patrick and Tashaunie”. Tash I don’t know if I have spelt your name correctly so please don’t kill me. I could take whatever I wanted from the shop to the dismay and disgust of Patrick. Hahaha. I remember Mom tasked me to cook dinner that Sunday. She said, “Preston mi have likkle goat inna di fridge yuh waan curry it?” I cooked a wicked curry goat and fried chicken with gungo rice and peas. Mon, I will forever cherish those memories and the numerous conversations we had. I will try my best to look out for my brother and Tash. Walk Good Mummy. In life we loved in death we do the same.

“ Mother,

Words cannot express how I feel without you physically being here with me. These past few weeks have been the roughest days of my life and you would have been the person that I can call on to encourage me to make me feel better. I know you know how much I love you because we end each phone call by saying "I love you" and blew kisses before hanging up. I know you are looking down on me, wishing you could console me from this usually heart ache and pain that I am feeling but I want to let you know that I will stay strong for the family, that I will never give up on Tashi or anyone else in the family and you will always be the best part of my life.

I miss hearing your soothing voice, telling me to make sure that I ate something, to make sure that when it rains that I am keeping myself warm. And to just give me words of encouragement in anything that I do. You've been a strong believer in God and you always put our interest above yours. You are truly a selfless and inspirational Mother. You've made so many sacrifices to raise 4 amazing Children. We've have been through good times and bad and you've never wavered or given up on us - Myself, Keisha, Deon and Tashi. I will be forever grateful for the man to you made of me and I know my sisters feel the same about what you've done and made us out to be.

As you look down on us in Heaven, I know you will continue to guide us through this difficult time, that you will whisper words of encouragement to us. That our dreams will be filled with precious moments with you and that you will continue to shape our lives. I love you Mom with all of my heart. Until will meet again.

Your one and also Son!

Patrick Daley

“ God saw it fit to call his daughter home and she is now resting in his presence. May he give his peace that passes all understanding to those of us that remain, and help us to praise and worship him even during the lost of our love one.
