

Nelly Ramos

March 14, 1958 - March 6, 2019

Nelly Ramos was born on March 14, 1958 in Perth Amboy, N.J, the third child of her parents, Leonardo (Nayo) Ramos and Geronima (Gery) Diaz. She was raised in New Jersey until 1970 when the family moved to Levittown, Puerto Rico. There Nelly graduated from Pedro Albizu Campos High School. While attending high school Nelly received voice lessons from a famous musical group, Los Andinos. Singing became her passion and she went on to perform solos at her high school functions. Among those performances she sang one of her favorite songs, PRECIOSA.

Upon graduating high school Nelly decided to further her education by returning to New Jersey and attending Brookdale Community College. While attending college in 1981 she got married. Once married, Nelly had the opportunity to live in Germany and travel throughout Europe. Amazed by the beauty of Europe she never forgot how much she loved it.

After returning to the United States in 1982 she gave birth to her only son, Christian Jimenez. As a single mother, Nelly raised her only child in central Jersey where he graduated and went on to further his education in Florida.

Nelly's professional career began at Middlesex County College, followed by Devry Institute of Technology and culminated as a Senior Community Program Specialist for the State of New Jersey, Juvenile Justice Commission. She worked closely with juveniles and their families, helping them adjust back into society. She successfully transformed the lives of many youth throughout central Jersey. Nelly retired from the state of New Jersey in 2016 and moved to Florida to live with her son and his beautiful family.

Nelly was a resilient mother, daughter, grandmother and sister who was very close to her family. She raised her only child with traditional values and encouraged him to focus on his future success. She did a wonderful job raising her child who today is a model son, father and husband. Today, Christian is a Sergeant with the Sheriff's Office of Palm Beach

County, Florida.

Our Nelly is best remembered for her love of family, love of friends and her love of music. She was the star performer at family functions by singing their favorite tunes. She lit up the room with her voice, her beautiful smile and her great sense of humor. Our hearts are broken but she will live forever in our hearts.

Nelly is survived by her son, Christian Jimenez, wife, Janice Jimenez, grandchildren, Julissa and Christian Jimenez. Her three siblings, Nelsie Martinez, husband, Edwin Martinez; Leonard Ramos, wife, Iris Ramos; and, Nelson Ramos, wife, Ivette Ramos. Nieces and Nephews: Jaime and Jason Martinez, Ryan, Cassandra, Daniel and Victoria Ramos.

“ I struggle to remember the exact day I met Nelly, all I knew was how much she loved my cousin, and how immediate we all fell in love with her. She gave us a piece of her heart, when she had Christian and trusted us wholeheartedly with her boy. I could only have done the same when she became my daughter's godmother. Thank you "comadre" for your unconditional love, and constant trust. Until we meet again, I love you.

“ I have memories that make me smile, of a young child that long to be by the side of an aunt that was adored. The child that I speak of was me.
You were the aunt filled with laughter and love. Who had such a wonderful way.
Only a heart as dear as yours would give unselfishly.
I can recall all the things you did. You had a talent for letting me know that you loved me.
And the impact you had upon my life, continues to this day still.
Thank you for all the soft, sweet things you have left behind in my home, in my head, in my heart.
You will truly be missed & forever loved.
Love you Titi
RIP

“ To: Christian, Janice, Julissa, Lil Christian & Family

You have my heartfelt sympathy and Condolences.

There will be a lot of testimonies to the phenomenal woman Nelly is or what she represented to the folks whom life she touch, whether work or home you don't find many who can hold a candle.

Nelly the kind of person & friend if blessed enough to know, she was your friend to the end. I will never be able to fill the void that Nelly has left me with, but I will treasure my memories of her for the rest of my life. She is now the antiques of my soul, locked in my heart. My memories are precious and I am a better person to have known her.

I'm glad to have played a part in talking Nelly into early retirement! God had a plan and being there with you was her fairytale. I will always treasure her stories that she was afford being with you and family, the pictures, joy and her total happiness.

I pray as the days to come you know she would have stayed if she could but God loved her best. In heaven she get to watch over everyone and just know she will never depart from the heart.

Family I'm always a phone call away.....you all are in my prayers and I share your pain. May it bring comfort that you are not alone and so loved by so many.

My heart is with you, love you all. Iris McCoy

“ In memory of my Sister Nelly.

Today you became an angel. I know this because you were already an angel on earth. You will forever live in my heart and in the hearts of all of those who loved you during your visit on earth. Today, you embark on a new journey to heaven. This journey will take you to the Lord's Kingdom. He will receive you with open arms because you were born with a noble, pure, and loving heart. In paper you were my Sister-in-Law, but in my heart you were, are, and will always be my Sister. I love you Nelly and I will miss you terribly. Please give my Son Jovan and Mom a big hug and kiss. I will see you in the short distance. It's not goodbye, it's just a see you later Sister.

“ I will always keep you in my heart, I will always keep your smile etched in my mind. You are an irreplaceable piece of my heart. I will miss your presence in my life and in the lives of my family. We shared a lifetime of childhood memories that I will forever treasure and every step of the way you were there as my sibling, my friend and I will always remember your love. Until we meet again someday, dearest sister.

“ My beloved sister Nelly I miss your beautiful smile, your beautiful voice, I was so blessed to have a beautiful sister like you, I'm very grateful that I was able to help comfort you in your time of pain. Miss you terribly, not in pain anymore I know now you're free of all your pain and sitting at the right hand of all our Heavenly Father with mami & papi and all our family members that departed, enjoying the beauty of the kingdom of heaven. May your spirit rest in peace I love you very much. I know that you'll be sitting at the right till we meet again
You brother
Leonard (Leo)

I miss you dearly
Rest in Peace
LOVE YOU

“ Dear friend Nelly. I am so sad about your passing. You were so full of life and laughter. I remember all of our conversations and was honored to be called your friend. Your beautiful spirit will live on in your beautiful grandchildren. How much you loved them. Christian I never met you but I know you. Your mom was so proud of you. She called me before she retired and asked me what she needed to do. Asked me how I liked Florida because I also moved here to be near my family. I know that she loved every minute she was living here. My heart goes out to you all. May our Lord embrace her. Give you all strength to endure and comfort you all. Roseanne Iresabal
