“ Uncle Reggie, It's hard to know that you're no longer with us in the physical but will be with us in the spirit; You're in my memory, thoughts and most of all in my heart. Thank you for being so genuine, thoughtful and for showing me that even though that life has its challenges that we must face but also that it is filled with fun and adventure.

Even though we don't talk as much over the phone but once we're connected we didn't miss either each other's company or the time passed, for the drive outs, sitting outside the patio, evening walks in the plazas and most of all the jokes I will cling dearly to my heart.

Everyday when I was around you, you showed love in your own special way. Now the pain is just too much to bear and it hurts like hell, since your passing it hurts to even laugh it feels like a thousand miles from happiness it hurts.

Thank you for being a dedicated husband, father, brother in law and Uncle to our family.

Grief is the real price we pay for love and in life we truly must love our departed ones even more in death.

Rest in Peace Uncle Reggie, When man on earth has done his best Angels in heaven cant do better nuff love! stay strong and keep the faith Aunt Max & Gina an Angel is with you now on full time duty

“ It was indeed a Joy to have met and be considered a friend of Reggie's, I met this wonderful person through my sister friend, his sister Andrea we laughed, we worshipped together, I took him church hoping when he came to New York once, oh He enjoyed himself, I can still see that Smile. From the very beginning he loved my family he cared about everyone and he was always in the moment and present no matter what we were doing . He was always smiling and whatever we wanted to do he was willing, such a kind HEART. Will miss you my dear Brother by another Mother, see you on the other side of the pillow Reggie.

“ Maxine, I really loved the way Reggie made you and Regina happy. You were not just smiling, always laughing. As you both are extremely saddened at his passing, be comforted by the wonderful memories of the lovely times you shared with him. Chris fondly remembers the days he and Reggie shared working together at Caribbean Metal Products. We also fondly remember your wedding. Please accept condolences from us all, Chris, Jas, Kristojay & Christopher as we ask that the God of all comfort be with you and Regina at this very difficult period. We continue to pray. Be strong!
Love always dear.

“ Remembering Reginald Goldson “Reggie”.
Our family has lost a Brother in law, a close friend & confidant. We shared a relationship for years and he has always showed total interest in our family. We could always rely on him for advice and encouragement when there is a problem. We are indebted to him for his kindness, words of wisdom and unfailing support. He was greatly respected and admired by us The Cole family.
May loving memories bring you the Goldson family peace, comfort and strength knowing that his life was a true blessing to all who knew and loved him. Rest In Peace my brother.

“ My dear Bro-in- law, Reggie, an original and true gentle man with a sharp wit and a real down to earth Jamaican spirit.
We shared many a laughter on our Florida visits from London. Reggie would make me breakfast so I didn't even need to lift a finger. He would make me oats porridge..... which I don't really like..... but he had a special way how he blended and flavoured it that I really enjoyed!
On my last visit I enjoyed cooking for Reggie as he had a v good appetite... even pinching the green plantain before fully ready... see pic proof!.... enjoy your rest and daily bread now Mass Reggie as your cup will always be full of love. We cherished your time with us.... and until we meet again .....One Love xxx as Maxine and Regina continues your legacy. Donna Cole-Grant

“ Our brother Reggie as we the Brown family called him is the man who always brings the music. Everyone knows that music is the universal language that transcends time, culture, race and speaks to the soul of everyone and Reggie was that man. Our brother Reggie was not a man of many words, but what he lacked to say he expressed in his music. Like the music his memory will live on, may God rest his soul and he be with us in spirit always. Love you Reggie.

“ There are many people you meet throughout your life who are like a hurricane that seek to destroy all in its patch leaving you scampering to save yourself and your very Soul from destruction. Reggie is like the cool blustery wind that when it blows, you stand with your head high, arms stretched wide open, just to enjoy and appreciate that moment, with an overwhelming feeling that you could live in that very moment for an eternity.

He would uplift and enlighten your very Soul from the first conversation, always putting others first despite his own needs. You only need to be in his company but just for a moment before the realisation you met have someone special who will bring true meaning to your life that would almost instantaneously give you cause to re-examine yourself and strive to be the best person you could ever be.

He had a strong will and Character built not of the toughest steel but the strongest material known to man and from the inception of his life to the very end, those virtues remained steadfast and true. He loved his music and playing chess and through those very simple but important activities delivered life changing moments to many lives without many people realising or understanding its potency, meaning and benefits to your character and emotional needs.

Music touches all of us in ways that we may not fully understand from the obvious to the inexplicable. It brings people together, It may make us laugh, cry, sad, relaxed or even angry but it will also heal your mind body and spirit, boost your memory, improve your attention span, build endurance and even shown to lower blood pressure.

Chess teaches you to be calm under pressure, exercise logic, test your memory, help you to improve your problem-solving skills, build confidence, develop your creativity, teaches that there are consequence to each action but not least of all it brings people together and teaches you how to win and lose.

It is important to learn how to accept losing, therefore sometimes we give a lesson and sometimes we receive a lesson but the most important thing is to learn from those losses and come back a better person.

Today we mourn the loss of Reggie and must accept our loss, examine ourselves and come back tomorrow stronger and a better person than today.

He was my friend and family and we will miss him dearly and are thankful in this moment of mourning our loss that he is no longer suffering in silence and is and peace and rest.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Mr Goldson. He was always easy going and relaxed. He would always have a joke to tell. He would have everyone laughing for hours. He was someone who I could sit and talk to about music with ease. It saddens my heart, when I heard of his passing. Even though he is physically gone, his spirit and memories will live forever in our hearts. I know he will have everyone in heaven laughing too. Condolences to his family. To Mr Goldson, keep on playing your music DJ. RIEP.

“ We have lost a good person. Reggie was a man of good conversation a philosopher. It would be one hour and you didn't realize you were talking so long. I remember when Maxine had that bashment birthday party for him, he was so happy and full of life. Regina, Maxine and the family god will take care of you.

“ Reggie was a friendly and outgoing person who loved his family; had a passion for music; and lived his life to the fullest. He was kindhearted and was very accepting of his wife's friends; and so, if you were her friend you gained his friendship. I am thankful for the times he shared with my dear friend Maxine. I want to express my deepest condolences to her, Regina and the entire family on his transition to be with the Holy Father. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Rest In Peace Reggie and may light perpetual shine on you!

“ Reggie was such a caring, kindhearted and easy going person who was well loved by everyone. His family meant the world to him and he loved his music. His passing has left a void in the many lives of those he has touched. He will surely be missed. Gone but will not be forgotten. Rest in peace Reggie. My sincere condolences to my dear friend Maxine, Regina and all the family. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ A few years ago I had an opportunity to share in the home of Maxine and Reginald while there i realised that he was truly family man who saw what needed to be done and never waited to be told. His humility reflected a peacefull atmosphere which was truly an asset. Maxine and Regina continue to reflect on the memories and may he be granted eternal rest.

“ A more easy going person you will not find. Reggie as I knew him was so kind hearted . It seemed as if nothing stressed him . He was so cool and laid back , he was always excited to show his “man cave” and select some music to add to the mix .
He will surely be missed.
Our condolences to Auntie Maxine , Regina and other Family members .

“ Our friendship began in 1977 when I sold him a copy of this record Sue fi mi chachita by el Chicano then we lost contact in the early 1980's. We buck at another friend of both of us party and we planned for a selecta clash which we both loved and did a few. Reggie's mancave which he was proud of creating became our regular music social. But most of all Reggie was a very dear friend of mine very kindhearted, sociable and the word stress was not in his vocabulary. I was very broken up by the news of his passing and without any reservations he will surely be missed by myself and many others. My condolences to Maxine, Regina, his mother and other family members.
