“ Nephew:

Today we embraced your spirit and soul in few different ways. Saw a video of Christian dancing and it reminded me of when you would sneak eat all the popsicles which was followed by a long laughing segment! It has taken me till now to be able to share with you. It's been about a year since I last saw you and if I could go back in time I would give such a big loving hug and not let go. I know you are At peace and knowing I have you as angel to protect me and our family allows me to get through this chapter of life. We will live our lives in honor of you Nephew!

Love and will miss you forever Nephew

“ Thanks for being my friend Austin! I'll always remember our Lithia Ridge memories of skateboarding, playing basketball endlessly, being young and reckless, riding the bus to school, our high school experiences and so much more. Your smile always lit up the room and I will always cherish these memories. Rest easy my friend!

“ Austin su partida al infinito me ha roto en pedazos mi corazón. Pero me quedan muchos lindos y bellos recuerdos cuando lo tuve en mis brazos a las dos semanas de haber nacido, luego cuando tenía dos añitos de edad estuvo en mi casa en NY y a la hora de comer yo tenía una cucharita bien chiquita y me decía “ that’s my own spoon” y después se ponía un sombrero y decía this is my own hat”. Siempre estará en mis pensamientos, en mis oraciones y en mi corazón. Lo amaré siempre.

“ The essence of motherhood is not restricted to women who have given birth; it is a principle inherent in both women and men. It is the attitude of the mind. It is love — and that love is the very breath of life. No one would say, “I will breathe only when I am with my family and friends; I won’t breathe in front of my enemies.” Similarly, for those in whom motherhood has awakened, love and compassion towards everyone is as much part of their being as breathing.” — Amma (Sri Mata Amritanandamayi Devi)

angela Nelson - November 23, 2020 at 12:02 AM

“ Sending heartfelt condolences to Rick, Angela, Brandon, Kristian and the whole family. We are so very sorry for your loss. We remember Austin with great affection, from when he was in third grade and used to come to our house to play or for sleepovers. There were many shared summer camp adventures, day trips to parks and picnics. We will miss Austin, and we wish for all of you that you find strength together at this saddest of times.

“ My beloved nephew Austin, I will always cherish the first time I hold you in my arms when you was just 3 months old, your beautiful smile of a little Angel. Then, the second time you greeted me with hugs and kisses back in 1997, you was 8 years old and we had so much fun at the dining table. Thank you for those beautiful and loving memories you left in my heart, I will always cherish with so much love, life and a bright light because that is what you are, our bright light in the sky.

“ Thank you for sharing such a wonderful memory.. beautiful

angela nelson - November 20, 2020 at 08:00 PM

“ I went to visit Austin and family when he was a toddler, he was a rambunctious as any baby his age, he bit me so hard as if a crab that would let go had gotten me . I remember his bite Mark , his newly formed teeth on my leg and his mom tryong to get him off me lol , then he took poop from his basinette and he brought it to show his mom he used it all hilarious & unforgettable moments in his infancy , I recall telling him the story when he was 16 . Then when he and Brandon came to visit me in NY with the family, they liked getting Italian Ices at Ralph's Italian Ices ; I still see that 11 or 12 year old running on the way to that shop to get them before going to the airport . It was a treat for him bc the sugar content was high...He was so intelligent and sensitive, A wise guy as we say in NY. He was sharp and a business man at an early age; a talented artist , he could draw beautifully. My heart is broken into tiny pieces Austin and I know only God knows he called you this early. I pray for your soul to be at peace , that you rest quietly and cheerfully looking at us because it is us who are hurting not you my cacheton. It hurts so much to see you go but we accept God wishes. You will be coloring the clouds now and in in great company in heaven, family welcoming you with open arms as has Jesus and Our Father. Miss you already. I trust that candelita I placed in yiur name to the Virgen of Guadalupe in Mexicon is still lit for on your way to heaven. Buen Viaje dear nephew . Tia Mirian
