“ Our thoughts are with the family. May the support of family and friends be a source of strength and the God of comfort a refuge in your time of need. Thoughts of peace.

“ Steve was a bright light with his easy smile, great conversations, and his endless optimism. Always so proud of his family too. He will be greatly missed. With compassion and caring, Monica Wesolowski (Sun Sentinel)

“ I'll always know him as "Mr. Weinhouse." He was a humorous and gregarious man who was so pleased with his life and family. He proudly told me stories of duties with the police and as a New Yorker. Steven loved his family and friends and shared his zest for life and warm home with anyone who had the joy to be around him. May his memory be a blessing.

“ When Sean was in my kindergarten class, I could always count on Steve to chaperone all our field trips. Such a nice dad to have around! A kind & generous gentleman. Many wonderful memories. My deepest condolences to Denise and their children.

“ Although our time together wasn't the longest, the lessons I've learned from Grandpa Stevie will last a life time. I will forever miss the fun times fishing, swimming, playing pool and ping pong, and just hanging out. Grandpa Stevie, I hope to one day make you proud. I want to be a police officer just like you. You played such a big factor in that decision of mine. I wish we could've spent more time together, but I'm beyond grateful for the time we've had. For not being a blood related grandson, you loved and cared for me just as much as your other grandchildren. You truly made me feel like a part of the family. As much as I wish you could be down here with us, I'm thrilled that your pain is gone, and you're playing as much racquetball as you want in Heaven. That stupid cancer can't hurt you anymore!! I'll continue to pray for you everyday, as well as continue to love you more & more everyday. I'll see you soon Grandpa Stevie.

“ 46 years ago I made my grand entrance with the lights and sirens of a police escort. Steve had my back LITERALLY since Day 1. A part of every significant memory of my life. There are no words that capture his impact on our lives. To have met Steve in life was a gift. To be loved by him IS a treasure. Rest easy now, until we meet again♡

“ It is with a heavy heart I write this...

Steven Weinhouse, my Dad, has passed away.
After a year long battle with brain cancer he has moved on.
Though, my father and I did not always see eye to eye I would not be the man I am today without his guidance and examples of what it means to live a meaningful life. Through his life and how he's lived it he taught me about what it takes to be a father and husband.
He taught me how to laugh, how to tell a joke, and most importantly how to dance. The man could and would tear up any dance floor
My love of life and how to enjoy it comes from my Dad.
My father taught me how to be a fighter and stand up for what I believe in. He was Brooklyn Kid, NY Police Officer, a ball player, lifelong Yankees fan, a coach to many many people from NY to Florida, an awesome grandfather...
Beyond all of those titles he was my father and I am going to miss him
How do you tell people about the measure of a man, in my Dad's case it takes only one word...
LOVE

“ Where do I begin to explain life growing up with my big brother.

He was always there for me whenever I needed him

As his kid sister growing up in Brooklyn he always looked out for me. The boys on the block were afraid of him and would not mess with me. I was not much older than Liam is now when my brother met this magical women from Coney Island whom he fell in love with, And they have been together side by side ever since. Thank you Dee for loving my brother throughout your lives together

Through the two of you

You gave our family four greatest nieces and nephews and through them the greatest grand newphews and nieces

Steve you will always be in my heart. Bay ridge memories will never die

Good bye my big brother until we meet again

“ My friend for almost 50 years. My first partner on the job. Together we made more than 500 arrests. He was solid and could always be counted on. We had many confrontations with the bad guys and always came out on top. On a picnic I helped him pick out his wedding day to Denise. We all had many good times dancing and sharing a few drinks. We shared many memories over the years. He loved his family more than anyone would ever know. I'm so blessed to have been able to call him my friend. I'm so sorry for his family. He truly will be missed.

“ I've known Steve and family since 1987. A guy that would go out of his way to be the kindest - Best Friend a person could have. He's a very hard example to compete with! Thank you Weinhouse Family for the opportunity to properly say goodbye to him. He will surely be missed!

“ It takes a minute to find a special person, an hour to appreciate them, and a day to love them, but it takes an entire lifetime to forget them. You don't know me but your dad and I were very good friends (Ave P., we meet at Coney Island Hospital, he was on duty and I was working there) we had alot of fun and good times together. Please accept my sympathy to you and the entire Wainhouse family. A beautiful sole is never forgotten. Rest In Peace Steve. :(
