

Talgi J Tamer

November 22, 1941 - May 30, 2020

Talgi Tamer passed away peacefully surrounded by her children and grandchildren at her home on May 30th, 2020 in Wellington, Florida after a courageous battle with cancer.

Talgi was born in San Fernando, Trinidad and Tobago on November 22, 1941 to Delel and Anthony George. Talgi loved to cook and share her recipes and meals with her family. She was known for sacrificing a lot for her family, and always putting them first. She was a lover of people from all walks of life and saw God in everyone.

She is preceded in death by her children David, Suzette, and Simone; her sister Josephine; and her brother Joseph.

She is survived by her husband Nizam; her three children Sahda, Sharon, and Anthony; her grandchildren Sean, Krystal, CJ, Zachary, and Victoria; her sisters Rose, Tamer, and Debbie; her brothers George and Mikey; and her best friend and cousin Selma. She was a loving aunt and friend to many.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, June 12, at 10:30am at St. Therese de Lisieux for family members who are invited, as we have to limit the number of guests. For those who did not receive an invitation, please contact the immediate family for an invitation to the Zoom meeting that will record the service.

For those attending, please wear a face mask or covering.

The family is not accepting flowers at this time.

Comments

“ Remembering the family in heartfelt prayer. May the God of all comfort help to ease the pain of your grief. Thinking of you all.

Evans families - June 22, 2020 at 05:16 AM

“ Even in pain, my dear, sweet, Aunty Talgi loved to make you laugh. Gosh I'll miss all the late night talks, her hilarious stories, and the way she made you know she loves you unconditionally. Her kind, sweet, loving spirit will live on in all of us.

Veronica Solomon - June 11, 2020 at 06:26 PM